CHORUS. Keller's American Hymn.

Angel of Peace, thou hast wandered too long!
Spread thy white wings to the sunshine of love!
Come while our voices are blended in song,—
Fly to our ark like the storm beaten dove!
Fly to our ark on the wings of the dove,—
Speed o'er the far sounding billows of song,
Crowned with thine olive leaf garland of love,—
Angel of Peace, thou hast waited too long!

Brothers we meet, on this altar of thine
Mingling the gifts we have gathered for thee,
Sweet with the odors of myrtle and pine,
Breeze of the prairie and breath of the sea,
Meadow and mountain and forest and sea!
Sweet is the fragrance of myrtle and pine,
Sweeter the incense we offer to thee,
Brothers once more round this altar of thine!

Angels of Bethlehem, answer the strain!
Hark! a new birth song is filling the sky!—
Loud as the storm wind that tumbles the main,
Bid the full breath of the organ reply,
Let the loud tempest of voices reply,—
Roll its long surge like the earth-shaking main,
Swell the vast song till it mounts to the sky!—
Angels of Bethlehem, echo the strain!

OPENING SENTENCES.

INVOCATION.

[Congregation rises.]

SINGING of the L. M. Doxology. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

PASTORAL SALUTATION.

[Congregation sits.]

CHORUS. To Thee, O Country, Julius Eichberg.

To thee, O country, great and free,
With trusting hearts we cling;
Our voices tuned by joyous love,
Thy power and praises sing,
Upon thy mighty faithful heart,
We lay, we lay our burden down,
Thou art the only friend who feels
Their weight without a frown.

For thee, we daily work and strive,
To thee we give our love;
For thee with fervor deep we pray,
To Him who dwells above,
O God, preserve our father-land,
Let peace, let peace its ruler be,
And let her happy kingdom stretch
From north to south-most sea!

READING of the Scripture Lesson.

SOLO.

Miss ADELAIDE J. GRIGGS.

PRAYER.

SOLO AND CHORUS. Kipling's Recessional.

1. God of our fathers, known of old,—
Lord of our far-flung battle line—
Beneath whose awful Hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

3. Far call'd our navies melt away—
On dune and headland sinks the fire—
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
Judge of the nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

CHORUS—For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard—
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard,
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord! Amen.

2. The tumult and the shouting dies,
The Captains and the Kings depart,
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

4. If drunk with sight of pow'r we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe,
Such boasting as the Gentiles use,
Or lesser breeds without the law,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

SERMON by the Pastor, Matthew C. Julien.

SOLO AND CHORUS. The Star Spangled Banner.

Oh! say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming—
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night, that our flag was still there.
Oh! say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On that shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:
'Tis the Star spangled Banner—Oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is the band who so tauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution!
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave;
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and the war's desolation:
Blessed with victory and peace, may the Heaven-rescued land,
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved it a nation!
Thus conquer we must, when our cause it is just:
And this be our motto—"In God is our trust!"
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN. America.

[Congregation rises.]

1. My Country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of Liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain-side
Let Freedom ring!

2. My Native Country, thee,—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love!
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

3. Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet Freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break;
The sounds prolong.

4. Our fathers' God to Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee I sing.
Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God our King!

At a regular meeting of William Logan Rodman Post No.1, Department of Massachusetts, Grand Army of the Republic, held at their headquarters in New Bedford on the 15th day of December, 1897,

On motion of Comrade A.E.Chapman the following testimonial to the retiring Commander was by a vote of sixty-eight in the affirmative and three in the negative adopted.

A TESTIMONIAL TO THE RETIRING COMMANDER:

When we look back over the two years during which our retiring Commander, Thomas W.Cook, has been the chief officer of this Post, and recall the various important events which have transpired in that time, - unparalleled as they are in the history of any Post in the Order, a deep sense of gratitude is awakened in our hearts and finds a fitting expression in a formal ackrowledgement of his fidelity to the best interests of the Post .

It is a matter of regret to us, however, that in consequance of an unwarranted attack upon the rights of this Post at the very commencement of his administration, he, as our champion, incurred the ill-will of many connected with our Order, by his unswerving adherence to the position then taken by his Post; but his manly and unflinching defence of our rights have won our profound admiration.

While ever watchful to preserve our rights, he has with equal vigilance allowed no opportunity to pass which could tend to enhance the fame of this Post, or to advance its best interests; and we sincerely regret his announced decision to retire at the end of the present year from further service as Commander of this post. We accordingly spread this testimonial upon our records as a part of the current history of the Post.

Attest: B. F. Luther Actg Senior Vice-Commander of Post #1.

Comrade Cushman offered the following resolution.

To the Mayor, Aldermen & Common Council of the City of New Bedford

It has been your annual custome for many years to make an appropriation for expenses incident to the public observance of Memorial day, but as during the past few months the financial losses suffered by this community have been unprecedented and our chief industries are even now suspended during a strike which entails much deprivation and suffering, It has occured to us that it will not detract from the proper observence of the day if we ask this year to relieve the city from any embarrassment in the matter, We accordingly volunteer to undertake to decorate the graves of each veteran within the city limits without any appropriation whatever. We rely as we did, when we first rendered floral tributes to the memories of our deceased comrades mainly upon obtaining flowers through the patriotic donations of our fellow citizens. Our exercises must necessarily be simple and unostentatious, but we trust that such simplicity will not in the least exclude from the minds of our fellow citizens the significance of the observance of the day as a day hallowed by sacrifices for the perpetuation of our liberties. We trust that the result of our efforts may cause all to unite with us in rendering the day memorable as a patriotic demonstration of sympathy and cooperation in this tribute to the memory of our deceased comrades.

POST ONE'S PROTEST.

Letters to Secretary of War and Congressman Greene About Defences.

Post 1, G. A. R., has passed these resolutions, provoked by the failure of the war department to make an allotment out of the appropriation of March 3 for the defences of New Bedford:

Resolved, That a committe of three comrades be appointed to urge a proper allotment of the national appropriations for fortifications so that the port of New Bedford shall be secure in its defenses against any hostile invasion.

Major A. S. Cushman, Alexander O. Pierce and Simeon P. Luscomb were appointed the committee provided for in the resolution, and without delay began the work assigned them. A letter to President McKinley is to be prepared and forwarded at once.

The following letter has been sent to Secretary of War Alger:

New Bedford, April 6, 1899.

Hon. Russell A. Alger, Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.:

Dear Sir and Comrade:—At a meeting of William Logan Rodman post, No. 1, G. A. R., held last evening, the undersigend were appointed a committee to urge upon your consideration a sufficient allotment from the diminished appropriations by the last congres for carrying on the work of our national fortifications.

A former visit by you to this city is sufficient warrant for our addressing you upon the necessity of prosecuting the work at Clark's Point in this vicinity, since it is within your personal knowledge that our organization represents the militant and patriotic sentiment of our community, and may be regarded as the exponent of the more competent and interested portion of the community in like matters.

The lack of protection which existed at the commencement of our recent war with Spain, compels us to urge upon our national authorities the continuance of the work at Clark's Point, at least until the earthworks and masonry shall be in a condition available for defense in a like unforeseen emergency.

Our great manufacturing interests in this district should not be imperilled any longer, and we urge upon you the continuance of the work at this point until our community shall be adequately protected.

We doubt not that our representative, the Hon. William S. Greene, will attend to our interests, but we desire to strengthen him with the department in any representations as to the importance of the national defenses in his district.

With the assurances of our highest consideration and fraternal regard, we remain

Respectfully yours in F. C. & L.,
Austin S. Cushman.
Alexander O. Pierce.
Simeon P. Luscomb.

To Congressman Greene the committee has sent the following communication:

New Bedford, April 6, 1899.

Honorable William S. Greene, House of Representatives, Fall River, Mass.:

Dear Sir—From the annexed slip (clipping from the Evening Standard) you will see that work upon our defenses in this vicinity is to be stopped because of the non-allotment of funds from the appropriation of the last session of congress.

At a meeting of William Logan Rodman post 1, G. A. R., held last evening in this city, the undersigned were appointed a committee to urge upon the consideration of our national authorities a sufficient allotment to enable the works at Clark's Point, which remain incompleted, to be sufficiently advanced so that in any emergency they may serve as a proper defense for this city and the important interests within our district.

We will gladly second any efforts that you may take in this direction, and should be pleased to receive any suggestion whereby your hands may be strengthened.

As you are aware, our organization does not content itself with service rendered to our country in the war of the rebellion. We represent the militant and patriotic element of every community throughout our country, and are interested in securing every portion of the country from danger of invasion, but none know better than we in this locality the sense of insecurity which prevailed here at the commencement of our war with Spain.

This insecurity we must constantly urge upon our national authorities until the well devised system of defense then inaugurated shall be fully carried out.

Very respectfully yours,
Austin S. Cushman,
Alexander O. Pierce,
Simeon P. Luscomb.

"ON TO PHILADELPHIA" CRY OF G. A. R. VETS.

Two Large Excursion Parties Leave For the Quaker City.

WILL ATTEND NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

Expectation That Event Will be Greatest In History of Organization.

On to Philadelphia!

This was the cry of Grand Army veterans in this city Saturday and yesterday, when two large excursion parties left for the city of brotherly love, the veterans to participate in the 33d national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, and about 200 other New Bedford people to see the sights about Philadelphia and take in the cheap-rate excursions to neighboring cities and points of interest.

The encampment begins Sept. 4th and closes the 9th. It is thought that this will be the greatest event in the history of the organization. The city will be splendidly decorated and illuminated. It is expected that at least half a million people from away will be in attendance during a part of or the entire six days.

New Bedford sent her share of excursionists, some 400 going away.

The first party left the city Saturday afternoon at 5 55, with William Logan Rodman post No. 1, G. A. R. The comrades of this post assembled at headquarters on Pleasant street, and, headed by the Musical Exchange band, marched through Pleasant, Union, Purchase and Willis streets to the station where the comrades embarked on board the cars as follows:

Besides the veterans and friends, there were many others who took advantage of the cheap rates and five cars were filled with excursionists, in the neighborhood of 300 persons having purchased tickets. The scene was a lively one just before the train left.

The party went to Fall River, where they went on board the steamer Puritan. They left Jersey City at 8 15 a. m. yesterday and arrived in Philadelphia at 10 a. m. The quarters of post 1 in Philadelphia are at 2107 North Broad street. The members of post 1 have arranged a side trip to Gettysburg. The party will leave Philadelphia Tuesday after the big parade, and travel by night, so as to have all of Wednesday on the famous battlefield. The party will return Friday, reaching here Saturday morning.

CROWDED WITH STRANGERS.

Incoming Trains Bring Thousands to Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—The 33rd national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will begin here tomorrow. The vanguard of the veterans has already reached this city and found the people with outstretched arms of welcome. Never again, perhaps, will Philadelphia be the scene of a national encampment of the G. A. R. Of the valiant men who defended the cause of the Union, there remains but a remnant, and with the depletion of the ranks the welcome is more heartfelt and enthusiastic.

The city is crowded with strangers, while the incoming trains from all sections are bringing thousands upon thousands to help swell the throng. In anticipation of the coming of the host of the survivors and in recognition of the patriotism of the veterans who freely offered their lives in defence of the Union, Mayor Ashbridge issued a proclamation in which he recommended the events to the "loyal and patriotic interest of the people," urging the decoration of stores and dwellings in every street in the city.

The city has borne its share of the work and the citizens of Philadelphia by contributions of cash and in welcoming banners, have shown their interest in the reunion.

A feature of the encampment not to be overlooked is the gathering of various organizations of patriotic women, closely allied to the G. A. R. The national association of Army Nurses of the Civil war will meet and elect officers and the ladies of the G. A. R. will take similar action. The naval veterans will enjoy the distinction of giving the first street parade during the encampment. Theirs will take place tomorrow afternoon and will be a unique feature of the demonstration. The old salts who fought under Farragut will tramp shoulder to shoulder with the younger veterans of the Spanish-American war.

Next Friday the naval parade will take place. Admiral Sampson's fleet will be anchored in the Delaware river opposite the city and a long line of vessels will pass around the fighting ships. President McKinley and cabinet officers will review the warships from the revenue cutter Gresham. Members of the commission of the imperial Russian navy, stationed here superintending the building of a battleship and a cruiser, will participate in the naval pageant.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of President and Mrs. McKinley. The front rooms of an entire floor have been set apart for their accommodation at the Hotel Walton, and nothing has been left undone that will add to their comfort.

undergraduates' departments into harmony, and adapt the college work both to the schools below it and to the world after it. I believe there will be a progress in the course of study which shall advance the student really and truly not only toward citizenship but toward the particular kind of citizenship which he needs to exercise."

It was thus that the president, Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale university, characterized the present lines of development in his institution in a speech which he made last evening at the dinner given in his honor by the Chicago-Yale association at the University club. Mr. Hadley had spoken regretfully of some features of the educational work of Yale in the past. "I regret," he said, "that progress in matters of instruction has not been what it should have been—a lack of progress of co-ordination and of the adaptation of the studies to the condition of American life. There is a strong feeling now that the faculties must use brains in the reform of courses of instructions and put the work into coherence with itself and with outside life."

Then he made the prediction which has been quoted and continued: "I do not have great sympathy with the view that the college course should be a preparation of students for the professional or business life. I hold, rather, that it should co-operate with the store and office life that is to follow and teach those things which could not be learned in the store or office, so as to make a man big enough to see things outside his professional rut. I would have it give the graduate a large knowledge of life, so that when the chance for progress comes he will be the man to take the lead in it."

Mr. Hadley spoke also of some of the material improvements which Yale is aiming at for the celebration of the 200th anniversary of its foundation January 10 next. His present trip, which includes many of the largest cities of the west, is made largely with the view of stirring up Yale loyalty to aid in the work, and he gave many expressions of his appreciation to the alumni for the interest they had shown in their alma mater. He told of the new buildings to be erected as soon as the funds are ready, including an auditorium, a memorial vestibule, a dining hall and administration building. Then speaking of the finances he said:

"If Princeton, at the end of a century and a half of its history, could raise from its alumni a fund of $1,500,000, I figure that Yale, at the end of 200 years, can raise $2,000,000."

THE TANGLE IN BOSTON.

Police Detail Ordered to Attend Meeting of Common Council.

Boston, Jan. 4.—Mayor Hart called several political leaders into consultation with him yesterday, in an endeavor to form some plan for straightening out the tangle in the common council caused by Daniel J Kiley's alleged usurpation of the presidency on Monday. As far as can be learned, however, nothing developed at the conferences that was likely to relieve the situation. That trouble is not unexpected at the next meeting of the council, Thursday evening, is taken to be shown by the action of Mr. Kiley, in requesting the police commissioners to assign a squad of police for duty at City hall at that time.

The police commissioners directed that a detail of 20 under Deputy Superintendent Pierce be sent to the council chamber.

The new feature in the situation last night was the receipt by Clerk Joseph O'Kane of the common council and City Messenger Leary, of letters from Alfred F. Kinney, the senior member-elect of the council, notifying them that as the council had not legally organized, he was the recognized head of that body until organization is perfected.

After the installation exercises, the meeting adjourned to the banquet hall, where the ladies of the relief corps connected with the post had prepared an oyster supper, which was thoroughly enjoyed. After cigars and pipes were lighted the session resolved itself into a camp fire. Among those who made remarks were Commander Cook, Inspector Thompson and Thomas N. Thacher of post 190.

These festivities were kept up until quite late. Just before the party broke up, Commander Cook addressed remarks particularly to Comrade Thompson, and in behalf of the members of the post presented him an elegant stein,

Charles Thompson.

16 inches high. Comrade Thompson, although taken by surprise, responded feelingly and thanked his friends for this show of appreciation of his services.

Charles Thompson, the recipient of this gift, was born in England in 1841, and was obliged at an early age to become self supporting, and began a seafaring life without opportunity to obtain more than such rudiments of an education as are obtained at the schools for smaller children. He continued a sailor's life until December, 1863, when he enlisted in the 11th regiment, New Hampshire volunteers, with which he served during Grant's campaign from the Wilderness to the surrender of Lee at Appomatox. He received an honorable discharge from the service in June, 1865. He connected himself with the Grand Army of the Republic in 1869, and has been an earnest worker for the order. He has held most of the offices in the post to which he belongs, including that of commander; in fact, he has held the office of post historian for the past 10 years. He has been foremost among those who have tried to secure the passage of laws favorable to the soldiers and their families, and it is an open secret that to his labor and influence hundreds of deceased soldiers have received an honorable burial at the expense of the state that otherwise would have been deposited in a pauper's grave. His services in the Grand Army of the Republic have been recognized by his having been appointed for five successive years as aide-de-camp upon the staff of the national commander-in-chief, the present commander-in-chief, A. E. Shaw of New York, being the fifth to appoint him to that position. This is an honor of which few can boast. In 1890 he was appointed special agent of the Massachusetts bureau of statistics of labor, which position he still retains.

Meeting of Jan 3d 1900 Concluded.
Comrade Thompson in a manner that Should his deep thought at the Occurance.

present and assured the Comrades that if the Occasion Should occur that any of the Comrades Should present themselfs at his home and Nothing occured but the memory of the Departed Comrades from this Life of

The following Tribute to the late Comrade George R. Hurlburt a Charter Member of this Post in Steps of Resolutions by the order of the Post are as an attendant attached to the Records of this Meeting

A TRIBUTE TO CAPT. HURLBURT.

Post 1, G. A. R., Honors the Memory of a Cherished Comrade.

At the regular meeting of William Logan Rodman post, 1, G. A. R., the following report on resolutions upon the death of Captain George R. Hurlburt was unanimously adopted:

To the Committee, Officers and Comrades of William Logan Rodman post, No. 1, Department of Massachusetts, G. A. R.:

The committee appointed to draft resolutions upon the recent death of our comrade, Captain George Hurlburt, respectfully submits the following report:

Although Comrade Hurlburt was not a member of this post at the time of his death, yet he was so conspicuous among us in the early development of our order in New England, and so zealous in promoting the prosperity and growth of our post while a member, that his memory is cherished among us as that of a comrade of more than ordinary usefulness whose relief by death from a prolonged sickness appropriately requires more than a merely formal notice of the sad event. Our records would be deficient did they fail to bear some tribute of our esteem for one so universally honored and beloved.

He was enrolled in the Grand Army of the Republic on September 27th, 1866, and became a charter member of this post. His military career had not only displayed his loyalty, his courage and a natural capacity for command, but had revealed in a marked degree those qualities of head and heart which won for him the lasting confidence and esteem of his equals and superiors as well as of the rank and file of his commands. Without prior military experience he quickly raised company F, of the third Massachusetts infantry volunteers, though five companies were being simultaneously recruited in this vicinity. He led it with credit in the North Carolina campaign of 1862-3, including the battles of Kingston, Whitehall and Goldsboro. At the close of his term of service he raised company B of the fourth Massachusetts cavalry volunteers and served till the close of the war in the department of the south. No man served under him in either service that did not love him as an elder brother. No officer ever mentioned his name without praise. We who were his comrades in arms are proud to have been his associates in the work of our order and his memory "will dwell ever in our hearts."

Resolved, That as a symbol of our sorrow and respect that the charter of this post which bears his name be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days.

That a copy of this report as adopted be recorded in full in our minutes and Memorial Volume No. 1;

That a copy also duly sealed and attested by the commander and adjutant be sent to the sister of Comrade Hurlburt at Vineyard Haven, and a like copy to Nathaniel Lyon post, No. 2, Hartford, department of Connecticut, G. A. R., to which he was transferred upon leaving us.

G. A. R. RESOLUTIONS.

Post One Extends Thanks to Rev. John A. MacColl for His Utterances.

At a regular meeting of William Logan Rodman post 1, G. A. R., last Wednesday evening, resolutions in commendation of the utterances of Rev. John A. MacColl on the morning of May 27 were unanimously adopted. Commander T. W. Cook in addressing a letter to Mr. MacColl says, after alluding to the sermon of that morning: "A patriotic clergy sustained us in the war; it will not suffer the community to become apathetic now, so long as sequent misery remains to be ameliorated."

The resolutions, which were mailed today, are as follows:

Whereas, On the occasion of our recent attendance as a post upon divine service conducted by the Rev. John A. MacColl of this city, a most lucid and patriotic exposition was given of the principles for which we fought in the war of the Great Rebellion and the obligation of the nation to those who made the greater sacrifices for the public good were eloquently recognized and earnestly advocated; and,

Whereas, It is eminently fit that we should reciprocally give expression to our gratitude and appreciation of the kind and sympathetic expression of interest in the veterans of that war, and the earnest commendation of a just and liberal policy in regard to pensions for the needy and disabled wards of the nation; therefore

Resolved, That we heartily and publicly return our thanks to the Rev. John A. MacColl for his forcible and eloquent justification of the cause for which we fought, and for his just appreciation of the duty of the community at large towards those who by the fortunes of that war have become entitled to the most generous consideration of our government for the sacrifices they have made that our free institutions might be preserved for posterity.

Resolved, That these resolutions be extended upon our records as a part of our current history; that they be furnished to the press for publication, and that an engrossed copy of the same, signed by the commander, countersigned by the adjutant, and attested by the seal of the post, be sent to the Rev. John A. MacColl as a formal expression of our appreciation and thanks.

The foregoing resolutions were unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of William Logan Rodman post, No. 1, department of Massachusetts, Grand Army of the Republic, held at its headquarters in the city of New Bedford on the 30th day of May.

OBITUARY.

Death of Edward T. Chapman After Only Two Days' Illness.

Edward T. Chapman died at his home on Middle street, Monday evening, after an illness lasting but two days.

Few of Mr. Chapman's friends had heard that he was ill, and the announcement of his death was a severe shock to them.

On Saturday last, Mr. Chapman was at his store. Saturday night he complained of illness and pneumonia developed, causing death at about 8 o'clock Monday evening.

Mr. Chapman was born in this city in 1845, a son of Alfred M. Chapman, a sailmaker and member of the old firm of Shurtleff and Chapman. He received his education in the public schools of this city. In 1862, while a student in the High school, he enlisted in the old City Guards, Co. E., Third Massachusetts regiment and served for nine months. In 1864, he re-enlisted in Co. E., 58th Massachusetts regiment and went to the front, where he saw hot fighting. On June 2, 1864, in the battle of Cold Harbor, he received such wounds as to cause the loss of his left arm and in 1865, at Readville, was mustered out with the rank of sergant. He had been promoted to a rank of second lieutenant and served in that position during the campaign of Grant, but never received his commission.

Upon his muster out of the army, Mr. Chapman returned home and engaged in the wholesale and retail tobacco business, with great and growing succcess. For several years he had been one of the largest dealers in this section.

Mr. Chapman was a prominent member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, the New Bedford City Guards association, William Logan Rodman post, G. A. R., the New Bedford lodge of Elks, Acushnet lodge, I. O. O. F., Union lodge Knights of Pythias, and in G. A. R. circles was so prominent as to be aide de camp on the staff of General Fairchild, when the latter was national commander.

Mr. Chapman married Leonora D. Brown, who with his only son, Harry M. Chapman, survives him.

The funeral will be held in the Trinitarian church tomorrow at 1 p. m. The burial will be at Rural cemetery, with Grand Army ceremonies conducted by William Logan Rodman post.

ADDRESSED BY SENATOR HANNA

MR. CHAPMAN'S FUNERAL.

A Soldier's Burial Under Impressive Conditions.

The late Edward T. Chapman was given a soldier's burial today, and a comrade who was wounded on the same battlefield as deceased acted as one of the firing squad at his grave.

The funeral services, previous to the burial, took place early this afternoon in the Trinitarian church and there was present a large gathering of friends. The members of William Logan Rodman post 1, G. A. R., attended in a body, while delegates from other organizations with which deceased was connected were also present. The fact that he was to be given a soldier's farewell called together delegates from the different societies of women, auxiliary to the G. A. R., and Sons of Veterans, while among those present were nearly every local member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery.

The remains were encased in a couch casket, covered with black broadcloth, while the Stars and Stripes was spread over the casket. Surrounding the body were floral tributes innumerable, the front of the pulpit platform being a mass of these reminders of parting. The body was attired in the G. A. R. staff uniform, worn by deceased while on the staff of National Commander Fairchilds. The ushers at the church were Comrades William W. Atwood, John H. Lawrence, Charles C. Simmons and Joseph B. Wing.

As the mourners entered the church, "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own" was rendered on the church organ by Edgar Lord, and then began the service, Rev. M. C. Julien officiating. It was brief and included, besides a prayer, scripture readings arranged by Rev. S. C. Bushnell. A portion of the service was the reading of the following poem by Mr. Julien:

JESUS THE SAME.

When the Summer's reign was past,
And the summer flowers were dying,
In a whisper moaned the blast
While it through the reeds swept sighing;
"All is fading, all is changing,
Earth must change, and friends must sever."
But I heard a spirit say,
As the whisper died away:
"Jesus Christ, the same today, yesterday, forever!"

All around my passing feet,
Leaves like showers of gold were falling,
And the rustle as they fell
To my inmost heart seemed calling:
"All is fading, all is changing,
Earth must change, and friends must sever,"
As the red leaves round me lay
Yet again the voice did say:
"Jesus Christ, the same today, yesterday, forever!"

Yes, though all things from us flee,
And the path before looks dreary,

in the darkest hour.

There is comfort for the weary:
"All is fading, all is changing,
Earth must change, and friends must sever."
Yet once more I hear one say:
"Though earth's brightest things decay,
Jesus Christ, the same today, yesterday, forever!"

Appropriate vocal selections were rendered by a quartet consisting of Mrs. William P. Covell, soprano; Miss Sara B. Worth, alto; Ernest C. Read, tenor, and Walter H. Bassett, bass.

After a last look had been taken of the departed soldier, the body was escorted to Rural cemetery by the pall bearers and firing squad, followed by carriages conveying relatives. The firing squad flanked the bearers on either side of the hearse. The bearers were Captain James L. Wilbur, Lieutenant Thomas W. Comstock, Washington A. Eldredge, Oscar Aldrich, Thomas L. Parlow and Andrew J. Smith, six of the tallest members of post 1. The firing squad included Edwin D. Sherman, William Studley, William Butts and Albert Braley of the John A. Hawes camp, Sons of Veterans, and George H. Whipple and Harry Rogers of post 1, the last named being the comrade who was wounded at Cold Harbor when Mr. Chapman lost his arm. He and Mr. Rogers were removed from off the battlefield in the same ambulance.

Arriving at the grave Commander T. W. Cook conducted the burial service, Officer of the Day Joseph Donaghy assuming charge of the firing squad. There was also present from the post, assisting in the service, Senior Vice Commander Slosson, Adjutant Broadbent and Comrade Atwood. The closing ceremonies consisted of firing three volleys over the sounding of taps.

Company E association, which embraces members of the company in which Mr. Chapman served when he first enlisted, attended the service at the church in a body and sat with the members of post 1.

The floral tributes were beautiful, and so numerous that space will not permit of mention, save of those from the various organizations with which deceased was connected and those from public men. From post 1, wreath appropriately inscribed; from company E association, shield inscribed "Co. E, 3d Regt., M. V. M.; from the clerks at the store of deceased, standing wreath, with the word "Clerks" in immortels at base; from Elks, large wreath inscribed "B. P. O. E., No. 73;" from Sippican Tribe, I. O. R. M., shield with tomahawk across; from Mayor Ashley, a large basket of beautiful white flowers and roses; from City Auditor McGurk, an ivy wreath with bunch of orchids; from ex-Mayor Coughlin and George Flynn of Fall River, a large mound of white flowers; from members of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery residing here, individual tributes; from J. L. Richardson & Co., of Boston, a beautiful wreath. This firm is one with which Mr. Chapman did business. The members of the firm were in attendance at the funeral; from Boston members of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery, wreath and sickle; from Tobacco trust, Boston, wreath of galax leaves and roses.

TRADE HINDRANCES IN CHINA.

Why Labor-Saving Devices Are Not in Demand.

(Chautauquan.)

Whatever the political consequences of the uprising in China, there can be little doubt about its effect upon the industrial development of the country. Wherever the soldiers go, the railroads will soon follow, and that, of course, will result in a great increase of trade. The cost of transportation, under the present methods of transportation in China, is so high that only the most valuable and compact products are able to pay for their carriage any con

China, is so high that only the mos valuable and compact products ar able to pay for their carriage any con siderable distance. The use of th wheelbarrow, which on account of it ability to follow the narrowest path and go almost any place, is the mos common and cheapest method of trans portation, still costs at least 10 time as much as is charged for carryin freight in this country. In addition t the high cost of transportation, a sti greater hindrance to trade exists i the system of liken or transit dutie which are levied upon all traffic tha passes through the country. China i divided into tax districts which prac tically have a tariff against each othe Tax stations stand along the publi roads like our old-fashioned toll-gates at distances averaging about 30 mile apart. So heavy are these liken tax es, that it is rare that imported good penetrate the country farther than th second tax station. In addition to this there are restrictions on the movin of grain from one province to another and on certain trades and industries which amount to a practical prohibi tion of them. Thus, the mining o precious metals is prohibited excep under government license, while th manufacture of salt is a governnmen monopoly.

The result of such conditions ha been to make it impossible to manu facture for export, and Chinese labo has been confined to its limited hom market, which has steadily grown less Herein may be found the cause of th extreme cheapness of Chinese labo The problem in China is not how t get the most work out of a man, bu how to divide a given piece of wor so as to give the greatest possibl number of men a chance to make day's living out of it. The cheapes thing in the empire is a man, an therefore labor-saving devices are no in demand. How cheap this Chines labor actually is may be better under stood when it is known that in cer tain parts of the empire, Chinese car penters have proved that it is cheape to saw up logs into planks by the us of hand labor than with a saw-mill while in the great Kaiping mines which have been developed under Eng lish engineers, it has been foun cheaper to bring the coal to the sur face by the use of human labor tha to use engines, stationed at the ver
